1. Instructions have been passed through Communist Party channels that Party Members, and members of affiliated organizations must undertake the responsibility of training the population in air raid precaution measures. Lectures are to begin immediately in all localities.
2. Further instructions were circulated to local authorities on 27 July, forbidding the dismantling of air raid shelters, and ordering that all shelters be cleaned and made serviceable.
3. Inspections of shelters must be carried out three times monthly, and regularly written reports on their serviceability submitted to higher authority.
